

Centre for Peace Studies of the institution is actively associated with IARC : Centre for United Nations which is an international organization which works closely with United Nations initiatives.

Agenda of IARC is in accord with United Nations General Assembly declaration A/RES/66/288 – The Future We Want and A/RES/70/1 – Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

IARC : Centre for UN has worked in association / partnership with various UN initiatives including being listed as a Major Group Organization during UNCSD Rio+20 Earth Summit. The Institution has so far participated in two certificate programmes with IARC: Centre for UN:

1. Rio 23: IARC : Centre for United Nations launched the RIO Program (2012-2022) during United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development (UNCSD) during Rio+20 Earth Summit, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. The prestigious RIO Program is the world’ widest annual short-term course and workshop series about sustainable development in context of UN Future We Want Resolution and Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda. Thousands of participants across hundreds of education groups participate in the international short-term RIO courses and workshops.

The syllabus for RIO 23 was:

Rio+23 Syllabus (2016)
World Humanitarian Summit	Action Area: Dignity - Human First
Global Humanitarian Action Agenda	The Stateless People
Synthesis of Global Thematic Consultations	OCHA and Humanitarian Principles
Violations of International Humanitarian Law	International Bill of Human Rights
International Preventive Diplomacy	The Art & Science of Being Human
Action Area: Resilience - Courage ft. You	Action Area: Safety - Protect The World
Heroes of Humanitarian Causes	Human Impact of Paris Climate Change Agreement
Global Humanitarian Engineering	United Nations Peacekeeping Operations
Being Human: Ideas & Inspiration	The Humanitarian War?
Philosophy of Human Nature	Human Rights: Global Information Society

Action Area: Finance – Building The Future	Action Area: Partnerships - Together We Can
Economics of Humanitarian Markets	Global Interdependence and National Sovereignty
Business opportunities: Humanitarian Aid	Humanitarian Disaster Response & IDRL Guidelines
Rise of Humanitarian Entrepreneurs & Innovators	Humane Artificial Intelligence
Humanitarian Financing Mechanisms	Big Data & Digital Humanitarians

2. COP 22: COP+22 Program was designed especially to build momentum toward and beyond COP22, Marrakech. COP22 was a critical conference to stimulate the world into action in accordance with the Paris Agreement on climate change etched out at COP21, France to keep the global warming below 2 °C.

It is a complete online programme where students enrolled are send web links through which they log in for study material, submission of dissertation and final paper. The program is currently ongoing.